The Best Night

Tonight maybe Laylat Al-Qadr. Majed stayed up to pray and make du'a.

He remembered Allah is listening. His heart was full of hope.

This night is very precious.
